

CONTENTS
OF
THE THIRD VOLUME.

CHAPTER VII.

	PAGE
WILLIAM, Prince of Orange; his Appearance	1
His early Life and Education	2
His Theological Opinions	3
His Military Qualifications	5
His Love of Danger; his bad Health
Coldness of his Manners and Strength of his Emotions; his Friend- ship for Bentinck	8
Mary, Princess of Orange	11
Gilbert Burnet	13
He brings about a good Understanding between the Prince and Princess	17
Relations between William and English Parties	18
His Feelings towards England; his Feelings towards Holland and France	19
His Policy consistent throughout	24
Treaty of Augsburg; William becomes the Head of the English Opposition	27
Mordaunt proposes to William a Descent on England; William rejects the Advice	29
Discontent in England after the Fall of the Hydes	30
Conversions to Popery; Peterborough; Salisbury	31
Wycherley; Tindal; Haines	32

	PAGE
Dryden	33
The Hind and Panther	35
Change in the Policy of the Court towards the Puritans	37
Partial Toleration granted in Scotland	41
Closeting; it is unsuccessful	43
Admiral Herbert; Declaration of Indulgence	44
Feeling of the Protestant Dissenters	46
Feeling of the Church of England	48
The Court and the Church contend for the Favour of the Puritans	49
Letter to a Dissenter; Conduct of the Dissenters	52
Some of them side with the Court; Care; Alsop; Rosewell	55
Lobb; Penn	56
The Majority of the Puritans are against the Court; Baxter; Howe	57
Bunyan	58
Kiffin	60
The Prince and Princess of Orange hostile to the Declaration of Indulgence	64
Their Views respecting the English Roman Catholics vindicated	66
Enmity of James to Burnet	72
Mission of Dykvelt to England	74
Negotiations of Dykvelt with English Statesmen; Danby	75
Nottingham	76
Halifax	77
Devonshire	78
Edward Russell	81
Compton; Herbert; Churchill	82
Lady Churchill and the Princess Anne	84
Dykvelt returns to the Hague with Letters from many eminent Englishmen	87
Zulestein's Mission	88
Growing Enmity between James and William	89
Influence of the Dutch Press	90
Correspondence of Stewart and Fagel	91
Castelmaine's Embassy to Rome	92

CHAPTER VIII.

	PAGE
Consecration of the Nuncio at St. James's Palace; his public Reception	97
The Duke of Somerset	98
Dissolution of the Parliament; Military Offences illegally punished	99
Proceedings of the High Commission; the Universities	102
Proceedings against the University of Cambridge	104
The Earl of Mulgrave	106
State of Oxford	108
Magdalene College, Oxford	111
Anthony Farmer recommended by the King for President	114
Election of the President	115
The Fellows of Magdalene cited before the High Commission; Parker recommended as President; the Charterhouse	116
The Royal Progress	118
The King at Oxford; he reprimands the Fellows of Magdalene	120
Penn attempts to mediate	121
Special Ecclesiastical Commissioners sent to Oxford	123
Protest of Hough; Installation of Parker	124
Ejection of the Fellows	126
Magdalene College turned into a Popish Seminary	127
Resentment of the Clergy	128
Schemes of the Jesuitical Cabal respecting the Succession	130
Scheme of James and Tyrconnel for preventing the Princess of Orange from succeeding to the Kingdom of Ireland	132
The Queen pregnant; general Incredulity	133
Feeling of the Constituent Bodies, and of the Peers	136
James determines to pack a Parliament	137
The Board of Regulators; many Lords Lieutenants dismissed	139
The Earl of Oxford	140
The Earl of Shrewsbury	141
The Earl of Dorset	143
Questions put to the Magistrates	146
Their Answers; Failure of the King's Plans	147
List of Sheriffs; character of the Roman Catholic Country Gentlemen	151
Feeling of the Dissenters	154
Regulation of Corporations	155

	PAGE
Inquisition in all the Public Departments	159
Dismission of Sawyer	160
Williams Solicitor General	161
Second Declaration of Indulgence	162
The Clergy ordered to read it	163
They hesitate; Patriotism of the Protestant Nonconformists of London	164
Consultation of the London Clergy	165
Consultation at Lambeth Palace	167
Petition of the Seven Bishops presented to the King	168
The London Clergy disobey the Royal Order	171
Hesitation of the Government	173
It is determined to prosecute the Bishops for a Libel	174
They are examined by the Privy Council	175
They are committed to the Tower	177
Birth of the Pretender	178
He is generally believed to be supposititious	179
The Bishops brought before the King's Bench, and bailed	183
Agitation of the Public Mind	186
Uneasiness of Sunderland	187
He professes himself a Roman Catholic; Trial of the Bishops	188
The Verdict; Joy of the People	199
Peculiar State of Public Feeling at this Time	204

CHAPTER IX.

Change in the Opinion of the Tories concerning the Lawfulness of Resistance	208
Russell proposes to the Prince of Orange a Descent on England; Henry Sidney	216
Devonshire; Shrewsbury; Halifax; Danby	218
Bishop Compton; Nottingham; Lumley	220
Invitation to William despatched	221
Conduct of Mary	222
Difficulties of William's Enterprize	224

	PAGE
Conduct of James after the Trial of the Bishops	228
Dismissions and Promotions	229
Proceedings of the High Commission; Sprat resigns his Seat	231
Discontent of the Clergy; Transactions at Oxford	232
Discontent of the Gentry	233
Discontent of the Army	234
Irish Troops brought over	235
Public Indignation	236
Lillibullero	240
Politics of the United Provinces	241
Errors of the French King; his Quarrel with the Pope concerning the Franchises	244
The Archbishopric of Cologne	246
Skilful Management of William	247
His Military and Naval Preparations	248
He receives numerous Assurances of Support from England	249
Sunderland	251
Anxiety of William; Warnings conveyed to James	255
Exertions of Lewis to save James	257
James frustrates them	258
The French Armies invade Germany	260
William obtains the Sanction of the States General to his Expedi- tion	262
Schomberg; British Adventurers at the Hague	263
William's Declaration	265
James roused to a Sense of his Danger	267
His Naval Means	268
His Military Means	269
He attempts to conciliate his Subjects	270
He gives Audience to the Bishops	271
His Concessions ill received	272
Proofs of the Birth of the Prince of Wales submitted to the Privy Council	275
Disgrace of Sunderland	277
William takes leave of the States of Holland	278
He embarks and sails; he is driven back by a Storm	279
His Declaration arrives in England; James questions the Lords	280
William sets sail the second time	283
He passes the Straits	284
He lands at Torbay	285
He enters Exeter	289

	PAGE
Conversation of the King with the Bishops	295
Disturbances in London	297
Men of Rank begin to repair to the Prince	298
Lovelace	299
Colchester; Abingdon	300
Desertion of Cornbury	301
Petition of the Lords for a Parliament	305
The King goes to Salisbury	307
Seymour; Court of William at Exeter	308
Northern Insurrection	310
Skirmish at Wincanton	312
Desertion of Churchill and Grafton	314
Retreat of the Royal Army from Salisbury	316
Desertion of Prince George and Ormond; Flight of the Princess Anne	317
Council of Lords held by James	320
He appoints Commissioners to treat with William	324
The Negotiation a Feint	325
Dartmouth refuses to send the Prince of Wales into France	327
Agitation of London; Forged Proclamation	328
Risings in various Parts of the Country	330
Clarendon joins the Prince at Salisbury	332
Dissension in the Prince's Camp	333
The Prince reaches Hungerford; Skirmish at Reading; the King's Commissioners arrive at Hungerford	336
Negotiation	337
The Queen and Prince of Wales sent to France; Lauzun	342
The King's Preparations for Flight	346
His Flight	347

CHAPTER X.

The Flight of James known; great Agitation; the Lords meet at Guilddhall	348
Riots in London	352
The Spanish Ambassador's House sacked	353

CONTENTS.

XI

	PAGE
Arrest of Jeffreys	354
The Irish Night	356
The King detained near Sheerness	360
The Lords order him to be set at Liberty	365
William's Embarrassment	366
Arrest of Feversham	367
Arrival of James in London	368
Consultation at Windsor	370
The Dutch Troops occupy Whitehall	373
Message from the Prince delivered to James; James sets out for Rochester	374
Arrival of William at Saint James's	375
He is advised to assume the Crown by Right of Conquest	377
He calls together the Lords and the Members of the Parliaments of Charles the Second	379
Flight of James from Rochester	382
Debates and Resolutions of the Lords	383
Debates and Resolutions of the Commoners summoned by the Prince; a Convention called; Exertions of the Prince to restore Order	385
His tolerant Policy	386
Satisfaction of Roman Catholic Powers; State of Feeling in France	388
Reception of the Queen of England in France	390
Arrival of James at Saint Germain's	391
State of Feeling in the United Provinces	393
Election of Members to serve in the Convention	394
Affairs of Scotland	395
State of Parties in England	398
Sherlock's Plan	400
Sancroft's Plan	402
Danby's Plan	404
The Whig Plan	406
Meeting of the Convention; leading Members of the House of Commons	408
Choice of a Speaker	410
Debate on the State of the Nation	412
Resolution declaring the Throne vacant	414
It is sent up to the Lords	415
Debate in the Lords on the Plan of Regency	416
Schism between the Whigs and the Followers of Danby	423

	PAGE
Meeting at the Earl of Devonshire's	425
Debate in the Lords on the Question whether the Throne was vacant; Majority for the Negative; Agitation in London	427
Letter of James to the Convention	428
Debates; Negotiations; Letter of the Princess of Orange to Danby	429
The Princess Anne acquiesces in the Whig Plan	430
William explains his Views	431
The Conference between the Houses	433
The Lords yield; new Laws proposed for the Security of Liberty	435
Disputes and Compromise	437
The Declaration of Right	438
Arrival of Mary	440
Tender and Acceptance of the Crown	441
William and Mary proclaimed; peculiar Character of the English Revolution	442